

Shedding Light on a Dark Subject: Suicide

The Community for Hope of Greater Oshkosh invites you to an educational and inspirational evening to recognize

Suicide Prevention Awareness Week

Thursday, September 4, 2008

7 to 8 pm

404 North Main Street (Opera Square)
Oshkosh, Wisconsin

Please join us to . . .

- learn about simple strategies for suicide prevention.
- understand how suicide prevention is a community-wide effort.
- show support for mental health parity.
- raise awareness of the impact suicide has on our community.
- hear stories of survival from those who have lost a loved one.

For more information, contact Mary VanHaute, Executive Director of Community for Hope, at 920-680-4710 or visit our website, www.communityforhope.org. The Community for Hope of Greater Oshkosh is a nonprofit suicide prevention organization that promotes programs such as the Yellow Ribbon Campaign (It's OK to Ask for Help) and facilitates Survivors of Suicide groups.

If you have lost a loved one to suicide, you are encouraged to bring a pair of new shoes to this event. The shoes will be assembled around the audience as a visible sign of lives lost to suicide. Following the event, the shoes will be donated to a local charity.
